D&M Europe Establishes Direct Sales in Russia

Eindhoven, The Netherlands, April 28, 2008 -- D&M Europe, the European regional sales and marketing office of D&M Holdings Inc. (TSE 1:6735), announced today the establishment of a direct sales office in Moscow, Russia. The office will officially open on August 1, 2008. The new office will meet the increasing demand for Denon consumer products in Russia.

“We expect sales growth in Russia will continue at the current trend of nearly 40%,” said General Manager of D&M Europe Nick Isbouts. “This is a very exciting move into an emerging market. We expect to double our current sales in Russia in the next three years.”

Some of the employees of the current distributor, including senior sales and marketing management responsible for Russia, will move to D&M on August 1, 2008. Other D&M brands will continue to be sold through distributors in the country.

“Demand for premium audio is growing as the wealth of the country has access to high-end products,” continued Isbouts. “At a time when people are seeking true quality, D&M will be in a position to deliver directly to the customer.”
